2008 Humanitarian Award Recipient Named by AJAS

{Beachwood, OH} Richard Schwalberg, a resident of Solon, and Administrator at Menorah Park Center for Senior Living in Beachwood, Ohio, has been named the recipient of the 2008 Association of Jewish Aging Services (AJAS) Humanitarian Award. The award will be presented to Mr. Schwalberg during the 2008 annual AJAS Conference in Washington, D.C., March 23rd through the 26th.

The award is presented to an outstanding executive professional who best exemplifies the goals and ideas of AJAS. Mr. Schwalberg, by performance, contributions, and service to Jewish older adults, demonstrates dedication, integrity, commitment, innovation, proven professional leadership and community involvement. He has often been chosen as an example of best practices in advocacy throughout publications by AOPHA, AAHSA, and AJAS. His creativity and innovation on behalf of older adults in need of therapy services is second to none.

AJAS is a non-profit organization that promotes and supports elder services in the context of Jewish values through education, professional development, advocacy and community relationships. AJAS was founded in 1960. Its membership consists of more than 120 Jewish-sponsored, not-for-profit organizations throughout the U.S. and Canada. Dedicated to the well-being of aging Jewish adults, AJAS members serve about 1.5 million people annually.
